GREAT REVELATIONS COMING FOR BRITAIN.

Rosebery to be the Next Premier and Foreign Secretary.

Liberals Abandon Intention of Making Bannerman a Leader at Coming Term of Official Power—Probable Appearance of John Burns in Cabinet—Democratization of the Empire on Large Scale.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

LONDON, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Before the slightest linking of the subject has reached the public, the correspondent of the Chicago Daily News is enabled to make the interesting announcement that Lord Rosebery is to be the next Premier and Foreign Secretary of the British Empire.

The information comes from the same source which five years ago enabled the Daily News to announce Lord Salisbury's retirement from the Foreign Office, the succession of Lord Lansdowne and the reorganization of the Cabinet ten days in advance of the London press, which, in the meantime, printed circular denials of the "irresponsible rumors current in America."

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's self-effacement will cause a sensation when it becomes generally known. Months ago, the Liberal party chiefs formally decided that the premiership was the unquestioned right of the Scottish knight who so long has borne the brunt of the Unionist attacks, dating from the stirring days of the South African war, when he was pilloried throughout the nation as the "biggest little Englander."

Equally astonishing will be the revelation that Lord Rosebery has been persuaded to forsake his career of strenuous leisure for the turmoil of the premiership and the Foreign Office. Although the new Cabinet will be headed by one of the wealthiest nobles of the realm, Parliament, under the guidance of the next ministry, will aim at the most complete democratization of the British government in all history.

One of the significant indications of this is the probable appearance in the Cabinet of John Burns, who is slated either for the presidency of the Board of Trade, or for the Local Government Board, preferably the latter, which deals with matters closely related to municipal life. Still, it is possible that the pride of Bannerman will head the newly-created Department of Labor.

Liberal candidates for the impending general election have been specially selected with a view of carrying out the democratization idea. They are in a large majority of instances young men, chosen because of their individual merits rather than because of their lineage or wealth. Democracy and efficiency thus are to be the watchwords of the Liberals, both in the ministry and the Parliament.

BALFOUR'S WARNING.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
LONDON, Nov. 15.—Premier Balfour's unusually candid warning to his followers at the conference of the National Union of Conservative Associations at Newcastle last night is interpreted in some quarters as a threat to resign the leadership of the Unionist Party. It disconcerts those who regard the Liberal party as a threat to the Unionist Party.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Morning Post, it is caused by disaffected soldiery. Fierce fighting resulted in the complete destruction of the Chinese quarter.

A message from St. Petersburg states that rioters and loyalists fought desperately, soldiers and sailors being engaged on both sides. A large part of the town was set on fire. The first of the outbreak reached the Ministry of Marine Monday evening, but its publication was prohibited.

MINING CONGRESS

Good Work in Hand at El Paso.

Steps to be Taken to Protect Desert Prospectors from Horrible Deaths.

Resolutions and Map in Regard to the Wells and the Water Supplies.

California's Delegation Small While Arizona Has a Big One.

BY ARTHUR R. HINTON.

EL PASO (Tex.), Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] But few resolutions were introduced at the American Mining Congress and of these the only ones to provoke genuine heartfelt enthusiasm and applause were those urging that steps be taken to protect desert prospectors from horrible death by thirst, introduced by Capt. H. Z. Osborne of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

There is absolutely no chance of defeat, none likely of even a single negative vote, but the best sign is the deep quiet personal interest taken by every delegate approached in private conversation. Many will remember this at home, and perform good missionary work for the cause.

In presenting the resolution, Capt. Osborne, reviewing the history of the work of the Chamber of Commerce and the Times, referring to the map issued by the paper, declared the Congress owed it to the miners and prospectors to see if something could not be done to stop the repetition of desert horrors told of from time to time in the press. The government spends tens of thousands of dollars to protect the sailors from shipwreck and death on the water, but never a penny to protect desert miners.

As the last statement was made, the entire assembly of several hundred delegates, into applause. The delegate was seen by the Times reporter, and tonight not one but who voiced strong approval.

California's delegation is smaller than it should be. Those present are: George Hooper and H. Z. Osborne, Los Angeles; former State Senator E. C. Voorhees of Sutter Creek, Amador county, former president of the California Miners Association; M. B. Newcomb, San Francisco, quicksilver operator, Napa and San Benito counties; W. A. Desborough and Senator W. C. Ralston of San Francisco.

Arizona's delegation is a big one, and more come tomorrow. Thomas Ewing of Los Angeles responded to the address of welcome on behalf of California, but took occasion to say many things of Arizona as well. Nevada has one representative here, Richard A. Kiepe of Elv, White Pine county, Goldfield, Tonopah, Bullfrog and Searchlight remain unrepresented.

The resolutions in regard to desert water supplies are in full as follows: "Resolved, That the development and protection of desert water supplies is of such importance to the mining world as to warrant State aid, in view of the mining and varied industrial activities which would follow a thorough exploitation of our vast desert resources, with proper attention to said water supplies.

"Resolved, That all desert water should be preserved from pollution, be properly guarded, kept clear of shifting desert sands and rendered accessible to the prospector and traveler, who might not be provided with means for raising water from great depths.

"Resolved, That metal guide posts should be erected directing to said water supplies, any tampering with or defacing of said guide posts to constitute a penalizable offense.

"Resolved, That the County Boards of Supervisors shall be empowered to carry into effect the purposes of these resolutions.

"Resolved, That the Hydrographic branch of the United States Geological Survey be asked to lend its valuable aid for the benefit of our desert water supplies, giving special attention to their survey, development, maintenance and mapping, also doing whatever else may be deemed best in the judgment of the department for disseminating general information, all work done to be officially reported upon."

THE SHAKING OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT—Lord Rosebery to be Prime Minister and Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman to get out of the game.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The riding at Vladivostok is now reported quelled. According to the Shanghai correspondent of the Morning Post, it is caused by disaffected soldiery. Fierce fighting resulted in the complete destruction of the Chinese quarter.

A message from St. Petersburg states that rioters and loyalists fought desperately, soldiers and sailors being engaged on both sides. A large part of the town was set on fire. The first of the outbreak reached the Ministry of Marine Monday evening, but its publication was prohibited.

The outbreak apparently resembled the Kronstadt affair, but on a far greater scale, involving a great loss of life. A state of war has been declared in Vladivostok.

Vessels are waiting at Shanghai with supplies for Vladivostok. The Russian warships Manjur, Kronovoi and Bodr, now at Shanghai, have been ordered to proceed to Vladivostok with all speed.

GRAVE CONDITIONS.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Friede, wife of M. S. Friede, No. 316 Broad street, who is identified with the American Commercial Development Company in Manchuria, has received several cablegrams from her husband, who is in Vladivostok, telling of a grave condition of affairs there.

Friede's interests in the Far East suffered through the outbreak of the Russo-Japanese war, and when he returned from Port Arthur, last April, he was compelled to go into voluntary bankruptcy. Since then, he has settled with his creditors, and has resumed his business in the East.

Since November 3, Mrs. Friede has received cablegrams every day assuring her that he was safe and well. These caused her much concern, as he was not accustomed on previous trips to send cablegrams so much frequent intervals.

She received a cablegram November 6 which read: "Well, so far. Answer via Shanghai until Russian wires are working." November 13, she received another, dated at Vladivostok, as follows: "Safe in Vladivostok." On the morning of November 13, this dispatch was received: "I am well, safe on November thirteenth."

She received a cablegram this morning which was dated at Vladivostok, November 13, which reads: "Safe aboard the Labor. Terrible destruction of life and property. City in flames."

ROCKEFELLER'S SON.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John D. Rockefeller, Jr., continued absence from his Bible class, though he is again attending to business at No. 26 Broadway and appears in better health than ever before, seems to give credence to the report that he will no longer act as teacher of his class.

The officers of the class are doing everything possible to hold the membership by obtaining good speakers for the sessions. While the class is Rockefeller's pet hobby, so to speak, it is said to have brought him so much annoyance that he thought it wise not to continue taking a very active interest.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. George B. McClellan, mother of Major McClellan, arrived here yesterday on the Red Star liner Zeeland from Antwerp. She was greatly pleased when reference was made to the Mayor's reelection. "I am delighted to know my son has been elected for the second term," said Mrs. McClellan. "He has always been a dutiful son, and must needs be a good, righteous executive."

BROTHER SLAYS HIS BROTHER AND SELF.

Ghastly Double Crime is Committed at Family Home by Fritz Kafitz, Son of Capitalist—Jealousy a Possible Cause.

DELIBERATELY and in cold blood Fritz Kafitz, elder son of William Kafitz, wealthy retired capitalist of No. 1103 Federal street, three times shot and instantly killed his only brother, Ludwig, on the threshold of the latter's room, about 2:30 o'clock last night, and retiring to his own room, shot and instantly killed himself.

There were no witnesses to the tragedy, the circumstances of which were unusually ghastly, and the motive which induced the murder and suicide is supposed to be jealousy induced by a dementia following upon the sudden death of the mother, a year ago.

The aged father, who lives on his bed on the lower floor of the big house at the report of the first revolver shot, rushed to the room of his sons above to encounter a horrible sight, which caused him on the spot.

In the glare of the electric lights, prone upon his back, clad in trousers and undershirt, the father came upon the body of his younger son, in his room at the head of the hall.

The face and head were a mass of blood from two gaping pistol wounds, while, like a black target on the white undershirt, with a bullet puncture in the exact center over the heart, a matted patch of cloth showed where another bullet had taken deadly effect.

From the scene of the murder the man rushed and followed a ghastly trail of bare feet smeared with blood down the hall and into the room of his elder son, where the murderer lay upon his back, clad only in a white night shirt, a cheap 38-caliber revolver by his side, and a hole through his right temple. His face and hands were covered with the smears of his own blood, but he was daubing his bare feet and legs with the clinging stains of his brother's blood.

FATHER'S GREAT GRIEF.
The screams of the aged parent around the lifeless bodies of his two sons, which were sent to the police; then all attention was directed toward preventing the old man doing violence to himself in the horror of his grief.

The eloquent, but mute signs of the tragedy indicate that the elder brother retired at the same time with the father and the brother, Ludwig. Removing his clothes he donned a night shirt and penned a note to his father, the ink of which was hardly dry, the tip of the shooting. Then taking the pistol, which he purchased only yesterday, he walked out through the hall, and rapped upon the door of his brother's room.

All unsuspecting of the designs of Fritz, Ludwig was busily engaged in packing his grip for a trip to Phoenix today to visit a young woman who some day soon expected to be Mrs. Ludwig Kafitz.

The grip, almost packed, still lay open upon the bed, when he turned to answer the summons of Cain. Apparently the first shot smacked against the brain directly between the eyes, and, entering the room over the prostrate Fritz, the elder brother, with a second and third shot, one with the revolver held close to the temple of his brother, the other with the weapon close to his heart, the place of the streaming blood staining the garments, the legs and the feet of the murderer, and then as deliberately he ended his own life in his bedroom down the hall.

But the motive of the crime? The almost incoherent and pennant hands pointed to the father, who was the murderer says that he is weary of living and that his brother must accompany him on the long journey.

The shooting was at the end of an apparently pleasant day, which the three had spent together automobiling about the city, visiting the many properties in which they are interested with W. J. Getz, their partner in the real estate business, which the four conducted under the head of the Kafitz Realty Company, at No. 2223 West Pico street, and shortly after all three had dined together at a little restaurant.

The father declares that the mind of Fritz had been affected since his mother dropped dead in the house about a year ago, but there are those who declare that it is a story of Cain and Abel over again, in which the favors shown the younger brother aroused the elder to a perfect fury of jealousy.

JEALOUSY POSSIBLE MOTIVE.
For it was to the murdered son, Ludwig, only 25 years of age, and seven years the junior of the elder, that the old man had given full and absolute power of attorney for the administration of his half million dollars of property interests in the city. And, although the elder brother participated in the company which the younger organized for the development of these properties, and of which the father was president, he appeared to feel that he was but a figure-head in the business, and that his opinions were not considered good and sound in the conduct of the business.

Nor did the seven months in Europe, on which tour Fritz accompanied his father, leaving Ludwig here to manage the business as he saw fit, appear to mollify or content the elder. It is but a few weeks since Fritz and his father returned from abroad, and the elder brother has been subject to fits of melancholy since that time, rather avoiding the society of his old friends, and especially of his father and brother.

Yesterday morning Fritz went into the Tuttle-Lyon Arms Co., on South Spring street, and asked to see a revolver. While he was looking over the stock of weapons Dr. Dwyer Carillo, an old friend of the family, happened in and jokingly asked: "What are you going to do now, Fritz, commit suicide?"

"Yes, I guess I am," returned the other rather soberly, passing his arm affectionately about the doctor's shoulder, but withdrawing it immediately, and walking from the store alone without buying the weapon at that time.

But the doctor did not give his passing remark a second thought until it was borne to him with deadly significance last night.

NOTE SHOWS PREMEDITATION.
Under date of yesterday and just prior to the shooting, Fritz Kafitz wrote the following note to his father:

"Dear Father: I am tired of life, and would like to be relieved of all the evils of life. Ludwig must go with me. It is best that we two should not be in the same house any more. I am a burden to myself and I consider it doing good to take the lives of both."

Farwell, Separation means pain. It is the hardest of all things. Fritz Ludwig was a devoted member of the Pico Heights Congregational Church, and the pastor, Rev. J. M. Schaefer, was among the first on the spot to offer consolation to the bereaved father.

The father is a man of considerable wealth, owning a number of valuable business and real estate properties in this city, where he has resided for the past nine years, since coming here with his sons from Chicago, where he made his fortune as a baker. He built the first flats and cottages on Pico Heights at a time when they were pointed to as folly, and when all about was farm land.

The remains of the two young men were taken to Pierce Brothers morgue late last night, where the inquest will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

RULERS OF THE WORLD.

Meat Eating Nations are the Leaders in Every Branch of Human Achievement.

The ruling nations of the world are meat eaters and history records that they always have been.

Vegetarians and food cranks may explain this to any way they choose, but the facts remain that the Americans, English, French, Russians and Germans are meat-eating nations, and they are also the most energetic and most progressive.

The principal food of the heroic Boer soldier, known as Biltong, is a dried beef, affording a great deal of sort of nourishment in a highly concentrated form.

The weak races of people are the rice-eating Chinese, Hindoos, and Japanees, regarded since the dawn of history as non-progressive, superstitious and inferior physically and mentally to the meat-eating nations who dominate them.

The structure of the teeth plainly indicates that human beings should subsist upon a variety of food, meat, fruit and grains, and it is unhygienic to confine one's diet to any one of those classes to the exclusion of another.

Meat is the most concentrated and most easily digested of foods, but our manner of living is often so unnatural that the digestive organs refuse to properly digest meat, eggs and similar nutritious and wholesome food, but it is not because such food is unwholesome, but the real reason is that the stomach lacks, from disease or weakness, hence arising indigestion and, later on, chronic dyspepsia.

Nervous people should eat plenty of meat, convalescents should make meat the principal food, hard-working people have to do so, and brain-workers and office men should eat, not so much meat, but at least once a day, and to insure its perfect digestion one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets should be taken after each meal, because they supply the pepsines, diastase and fruit acids, lacking in every case of stomach trouble.

Nervous dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, gastritis, sour stomach, gas and acidity are only different names for indigestion, the failure to digest wholesome food, and the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cures them all because, by affording perfect digestion, the stomach has a chance to rest and recover from its ailments.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the real household medicine; it is as safe and pleasant for the stomach ache of the baby as it is for the imperfect digestion of its grand sire.

They are not a cathartic, but a digestive, and no pill habit can ever follow their use; the only habit Stuart's Tablets induce is the habit of good digestion and consequently good health.

have been enabled to reduce rates and at the same time advance wages and spend large sums in the physical improvement of their properties is due to the reduction or elimination of grades, curves, etc., double capacities of cars, immensely increased hauling power of locomotives and superior character of general service rendered, showing an instance of management of 200 per cent. in train tonnage. We believe that in this increase in earning power and economical management the limit has been reached.

"Therefore, we believe that we take a fair and wise view of the situation when we claim that no national legislation should be adopted which shall interrupt the present future prosperity of the railroad employees in this country."

The delegation which called on the President came from twelve different States and represented all of the larger systems of railroads.

The President assured the delegation that it was not his purpose or the purpose of those who favored railroad-rate regulation to do anything that would injure the railroads of the country, or to injure the employees of the railroads. He said it was his purpose that all classes—railroads, shippers and employees—should have perfectly fair treatment.

WAS NOTED CRIMINAL.
THUG KILLED AT BERKELEY. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) BERKELEY, Nov. 11.—Four separate police and detective departments in America have now identified the picture and description of the thug killed late in September at West Berkeley by a policeman as that of Matthew Kennedy, alias Dick McManis, the noted criminal, wanted for various charges throughout the United States.

The Town Marshal has just received the latest corroborative of this identification from the Pinkerton detective agency, and the information accompanying it has dispelled any doubt about it being the correct solution of the mystery.

CRIME BRIEFS.
No Warrant in Todd Case.
NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Magistrate Crane denied yesterday the application for a warrant in the Margaretta Todd case. He gave no reason, but it is understood that it was taken in accordance with an opinion by Assistant District Attorney Nott.

UNION LABOR AGAINST RATE LEGISLATION.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—An earnest protest was made to the President today against proposed railroad rate legislation. The protest was made by representatives of the five great labor organizations connected with railroading—engineers, firemen, conductors, switchmen and trainmen.

The members of the delegation which called on the President represented the several organizations. They pointed out to him that railroad-rate legislation, legally, means the lowering of rates.

This, they contended, will be followed by a lessening of the earning power of railroads and consequently, by reduction, eventually, in the wages of railroad employees.

The statement presented by Mr. Huntley was as follows: "The railroad employees and those dependent upon them represent upward of 6,000,000 of people in this country and whose earnings amount to approximately $200,000,000 annually. We believe there is no other class of American workmen who present a higher general standard of citizenship than the railroad employees and we also claim that we are entitled to fair and impartial consideration in the framing or adoption of any national legislation that threatens our general prosperity."

"We take keen and active interest in all matters that seem to conduce to a higher and broader standard of conditions for the workmen of this country, and therefore it is not strange that since the inception of this movement for national legislation upon railroad rates all railroad employees have from time to time, and in various ways, expressed their convictions. For example, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, with a membership of 80,000 members, at their last annual convention, in Buffalo, last spring, adopted resolutions, in the most emphatic manner, against any reduction of railroad rates."

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen have expressed similar views by official utterances, and the same can be said of the Switchmen's National Association. The Order of Railroad Conductors, at their biennial convention at Portland, Or., last May, endorsed resolutions of the same nature.

"The membership of these organizations is now a little more than a quarter of a million and there are still behind us another full million of laborers in the railroad world who would be similarly affected by any reductions in the earning capacity of the railroad lines of this country."

"What impresses us with more force than any side of the issue is this: Why have the railroad interests in particular been selected for this attack? Why has the Interstate Commerce Commission

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

SHE RULES HERE!

NEWS AND BUSINESS

Caught With the Goods.

Lee Wing, Chinese peddler of lottery tickets, was arrested yesterday afternoon for conducting his particular business and released from the police station on $50 bail.

Gasoline—No House.

A gasoline stove explosion caused a fire at Sunset boulevard and Maitland avenue yesterday morning, completely destroyed R. N. Anderson's one-story frame dwelling. The total loss will amount to $250.

Pass-Key Sneak.

A sneak thief with a pass key made a good haul Monday night in the drug store of Ladd & Storey, No. 215 East First street. The thief ransacked the place and finally discovered a sack containing $4. He took it.

Handy Pass Key.

Ladd & Storey, druggists at No. 215 East First street, lost $4.25 to a sneak thief who entered their store Monday night with a pass key and ransacked all the drawers until he found the money.

Woman's Alliance.

The Women's Alliance of the Church of the Unity will hold a Christmas sale at the Church, No. 255 South Flower street, Thursday evening, November 18 and 19. A turkey dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening in the church dining-room.

Dr. Fargo Hurt.

Dr. D. Fargo, seventy-five years of age, assistant city inspector, suffered a dislocated shoulder yesterday afternoon as he attempted to alight from a car in front of the Humboldt store. His injuries were attended at the Receiving Hospital.

Says Me's Crazy.

Friends of Otto Erbes, the Hollywood plumber who rode away on his wheel Sunday morning and failed to return, received a letter from him yesterday mailed at Carmelita. Erbes said he guessed he was crazy, and asked his friends to dispose of his business and forget him, as he did not intend to return.

Small Burglaries.

Three burglaries were reported to the police yesterday. The Glenn Holly Dairy No. 1150 San Pedro street was entered by a thief who broke into a desk and stole $14.50. G. Ridgway's oil and wall paper store, No. 256 New High street was entered by a burglar who secured $30 and valuable papers. Claud Wilson of No. 417 Wall street lost a suit of clothes to a midnight sneak.

Literary Sections Work.

The first meeting for the season of the literary section of the Temple Union, which was postponed last week on account of the inclemency of the weather, will be held Thursday evening at the Temple, Ninth and Hope streets. Leo Cooper will deliver a lecture on "The Merchant of Venice" with incidental readings from the play. The meeting will be free to the public.

Connecticut Society.

A goodly company of former residents of the "Nutmeg State" met last night in the Chamber of Commerce assembly hall and had a social time together. Niles Paine presided at the meeting, and Dr. W. A. Lamb, who affiliates with the "bean-eaters," made a speech and confessed himself a "nutmegger." There was music and refreshments and a number of informal talks.

St. Joseph's Parish Fair.

The second day of St. Joseph's parish fair was very encouraging to its promoters. Both afternoon and evening brought good crowds to the attractions in the basement of the new school building on Los Angeles street, adjoining St. Joseph's Church, and the various booths did a lively business. Yesterday was especially for the members of the Christian Mothers' Society. A fine musical programme was rendered last night. This evening the programme will be especially for the children of the parish, and several special attractions are provided.

No Damage from Rain.

The Weather Crop Bureau service bulletin for Southern California says that the recent storm had a heavy precipitation for so early in the season in the southern sections. Elsewhere the precipitation was much lighter, but generally sufficient to start vegetation growing and enable farmers to begin plowing and seeding in good season. Fair, warm weather followed the rain, and the hills and valleys are beginning to show a coating of green, and the first sown grain is beginning to come up. No damage resulted from the rain, which fell slowly and all soaked into the ground. In most places it was equal to one irrigation, but to be of much or lasting benefit, more should come soon.

Bankrupt Merchant.

Many, who has been an extensive dealer in dry goods at San 15, for some years, yesterday filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court. His debts are scheduled at $12,638.86, the only preferred creditors being the clerks in his employ, whose claims amount to $120. The chief creditors are the firm of Murphy, Grant & Co., San Francisco, for about $3000; Robert McInerney of San Bernardino, $1700; the First National Bank of San Diego, $1200. His stock of merchandise is valued at $10,288.16, and his real estate and personal property at $4000, which item is claimed to be exempt from levy.

Two Car Accidents.

Alexander Leclerc, who lives at No. 127 West Twenty-third street, and drives a milk wagon, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon in a collision between his wagon and a Pacific Electric car at Anderson and Aliso streets. He was thrown from his wagon and rolled in the street and the horses broke from the wrecked vehicle and ran away. Covered with blood and dirt and half unconscious Leclerc was taken to his home and given medical attention. Sonoma Holmstrom, who lives at No. 106 Utah street, was knocked down and badly bruised by a street car he was trying to board at First and Utah streets. He was removed to his home and brought back on his knees.

Oil Car Bursts.

A carelessly thrown lighted cigar or a spark from an electric wire touched off an oil car last night about 9 o'clock and all East Los Angeles was excited for a few minutes, but little or no damage resulted. The car stood in the yards of the Amalgamated Oil Company at Bloom street and the Southern Pacific tracks at the end of North Main street. The car was slightly torn by the explosion, but practically no damage was done except the strewing of the oil around the premises. The noise of the blow-up was heard all over the city, and the northern heavens were lighted up for an instant by a flash.

Coming of Schmitz.

E. E. Schmitz, Mayor-elect of San Francisco, and party arrived in the city last night at 7:45 o'clock. Mr. Schmitz, accompanied by Mrs. Schmitz, Mrs. O. Lums, Miss Ruef, A. L. O'Grady, and A. Ruef. A brass band of the Woodmen met the party at the train. Quarters were taken at the Van Nuys, where the party dined privately last night and retired early. Tonight Mr. Schmitz will address an open union meeting at the Central Labor Union Council Hall, No. 440 Maple avenue. Tomorrow night he will be entertained by the Woodmen of the World at their hall at a smoker, while Mrs. Schmitz will be entertained at the same time by the Women of Woodcraft.

BREVITIES.

Times' "Liner" Advertisers—Important change in rate for Sunday classified advertisements. Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1936, and thereafter, the rate for Sunday "Liners" will be 34 cents per word for each insertion, minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of the Times, which averages over 60,000 copies. (When the 1-cent per-word rate was established in 1935, the Times Sunday circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

The San Francisco office of the Los Angeles Times is in room 41, Chronicle building, Telephone Main 1472. Subscriptions and advertisements taken. Visitors will find copies of The Times on file, and are welcome to call and read as at present.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The "new broom" was very much in evidence at yesterday morning's session of the Police Board. Billiard and pool men suffered most.

Seeking to "bust the trust" the city may apply to the State Voting Commission to hold a new test of voting machines; under present conditions the city can buy only standard machines.

Before Judge Chambers four Greeks are trying to recover the value of goods attached by the Sheriff, when the person from whom they obtained the property was indebted for them to a wholesale house.

In consequence of a woman entering into a lease with a tenant without authority of court a suit-up condition has resulted with regard to valuable property on Main street. Mrs. Lovell was guardian of her husband, and in such capacity was under the orders of the court, which she ignored.

Ashton and Doyle, alleged swindlers, were found guilty of battery by Justice Chambers yesterday and held without bail pending sentence today.

Rival claimants to an East First-street warehouse had today in court on charges of disturbance.

NO MORE BILLIARD LICENSES THIS YEAR.

Green Tables Used for Gambling in Residence Districts, Says the New Chief—One More Labor Union Hangout Closed by Order of Police Commission—Clean Sweep.

Being went the bars again in the Police Commission yesterday. This time it is the billiard and pool men who are left on the wrong side of the fence.

Not content with adopting a rule that no more licenses for billiard or poolrooms will be granted this year, the commission yesterday voted that they are considering the revocation of about all the licenses now held in the residence districts.

Chief Able started the trouble by a report to the effect that there are at the present time 115 licensed billiard halls in the city. He added that many of them are frequented by boys and young men who loiter there and with older men, generally the "regular" variety, which is a nuisance to the community.

The chief said that a limit be placed on the number of licenses.

Commissioner Green took the initiative by moving that no more licenses be granted this year, except in some exceptional cases. He said that the commission are convinced that there are mitigating circumstances. This motion was adopted unanimously.

Then came the most distressing part. Chief Able reported that the Indiana poolroom on East Broadway, which has become a resort in which the young bloods of the Sixth Ward engage in diverse and undignified games, otherwise known as "the bones." The chief said that one of the "fly boys" in the department recently took a hand in these games, the proprietor standing by and warning the players to keep a sharp lookout for the police. The Indiana license promptly went into the discard.

Responding to questions asked by the commissioners, Chief Able said that there are a number of other poolrooms in the residence districts in which gambling is permitted. "My men are looking them up," said the chief. "They will be other reports by next week."

Little gambling takes place in the poolrooms in the center of the city, explained the chief. It is only in the suburbs that dice and billiard balls frequent the same table.

Leaving the Indiana billiard hall in place, a favorite rendezvous of the labor union ring in the southern end of the Sixth Ward.

SUIT AGAINST SHERIFF WHICH MAY DEVELOP FRAUD.

Part of Greeks as Manipulate Deal for Stock of Groceries That Wholesale Board of Trade Seizes Attachments and Warrants for Arrest for Two of Them.

There are exceptions to every rule. When "Greek" meets "Greek" then comes a tug-of-war—sometimes. There is a curious case now on trial before Judge York wherein Greek met Greek, and the result was a suit against the Sheriff which may develop fraud.

Ostensibly Nick Gotsis and Louis Mandis, suing Sheriff White to recover a grocery stock valued at $600.25, that was attached on November 24. So much indignation is shown by the wholesale board of trade in this case, that a salve to their feelings, but behind these facts is a story of how a plan was laid to bunco a jobbing house and her matters went awry.

George Defferos and C. Bello used to carry on a small grocery at 245 New High street, and in November of last year obtained goods valued at $600.25 from the wholesale board of trade. The goods—comprising a varied assortment of groceries and hardware—were delivered to them at the store over to Gotsis and Mandis, who opened up in business at Seventh and Los Angeles streets with this lot of goods.

The wholesale board credit men speedily traced out the fraud and arrested Gotsis and Mandis in the Superior Court and an attachment issued against the property of Defferos, Bello & Co. "There it was found that the groceries had been transferred a few days prior to Gotsis and Mandis to a place known as the 'Wholesale Board of Trade,' and that the goods were being sold to them at a price far below the market value. The board of trade then issued warrants for the arrest of Defferos and Bello, and the case was set for trial before Judge York yesterday.

Defferos and Bello, who were acting as guardians, failed to obtain permission of the court to enter into the arrangement.

Before the case had expired the widow obtained an order from the court to sell the property. Hunter made a bid subject to confirmation by the court. When the matter came before the probate judge an agent for the Maier and Zobein brewery overbid Hunter's bid by $100.00 and took over the property subject to the lease, for a time accepting the $110 a month rental.

Lately, however, the brewery has refused to receive the rental and "intimidated" the widow by saying that if she did not pay the amount, they would demand, claiming protection under the lease. To settle the matter, Hunter began suit against the brewery.

The last lease made by Mrs. Lovell is declared "off color," but it also is contended that Maier and Zobein were in no position to attack it, inasmuch as they had taken rental from Hunter under the document. Judge Conroy took the case under submission.

Green Tables Used for Gambling in Residence Districts, Says the New Chief—One More Labor Union Hangout Closed by Order of Police Commission—Clean Sweep.

Being went the bars again in the Police Commission yesterday. This time it is the billiard and pool men who are left on the wrong side of the fence.

Not content with adopting a rule that no more licenses for billiard or poolrooms will be granted this year, the commission yesterday voted that they are considering the revocation of about all the licenses now held in the residence districts.

Chief Able started the trouble by a report to the effect that there are at the present time 115 licensed billiard halls in the city. He added that many of them are frequented by boys and young men who loiter there and with older men, generally the "regular" variety, which is a nuisance to the community.

The chief said that a limit be placed on the number of licenses.

Commissioner Green took the initiative by moving that no more licenses be granted this year, except in some exceptional cases. He said that the commission are convinced that there are mitigating circumstances. This motion was adopted unanimously.

Then came the most distressing part. Chief Able reported that the Indiana poolroom on East Broadway, which has become a resort in which the young bloods of the Sixth Ward engage in diverse and undignified games, otherwise known as "the bones." The chief said that one of the "fly boys" in the department recently took a hand in these games, the proprietor standing by and warning the players to keep a sharp lookout for the police. The Indiana license promptly went into the discard.

Responding to questions asked by the commissioners, Chief Able said that there are a number of other poolrooms in the residence districts in which gambling is permitted. "My men are looking them up," said the chief. "They will be other reports by next week."

Little gambling takes place in the poolrooms in the center of the city, explained the chief. It is only in the suburbs that dice and billiard balls frequent the same table.

SUIT AGAINST SHERIFF WHICH MAY DEVELOP FRAUD.

Part of Greeks as Manipulate Deal for Stock of Groceries That Wholesale Board of Trade Seizes Attachments and Warrants for Arrest for Two of Them.

There are exceptions to every rule. When "Greek" meets "Greek" then comes a tug-of-war—sometimes. There is a curious case now on trial before Judge York wherein Greek met Greek, and the result was a suit against the Sheriff which may develop fraud.

Ostensibly Nick Gotsis and Louis Mandis, suing Sheriff White to recover a grocery stock valued at $600.25, that was attached on November 24. So much indignation is shown by the wholesale board of trade in this case, that a salve to their feelings, but behind these facts is a story of how a plan was laid to bunco a jobbing house and her matters went awry.

George Defferos and C. Bello used to carry on a small grocery at 245 New High street, and in November of last year obtained goods valued at $600.25 from the wholesale board of trade. The goods—comprising a varied assortment of groceries and hardware—were delivered to them at the store over to Gotsis and Mandis, who opened up in business at Seventh and Los Angeles streets with this lot of goods.

The wholesale board credit men speedily traced out the fraud and arrested Gotsis and Mandis in the Superior Court and an attachment issued against the property of Defferos, Bello & Co. "There it was found that the groceries had been transferred a few days prior to Gotsis and Mandis to a place known as the 'Wholesale Board of Trade,' and that the goods were being sold to them at a price far below the market value. The board of trade then issued warrants for the arrest of Defferos and Bello, and the case was set for trial before Judge York yesterday.

Defferos and Bello, who were acting as guardians, failed to obtain permission of the court to enter into the arrangement.

Before the case had expired the widow obtained an order from the court to sell the property. Hunter made a bid subject to confirmation by the court. When the matter came before the probate judge an agent for the Maier and Zobein brewery overbid Hunter's bid by $100.00 and took over the property subject to the lease, for a time accepting the $110 a month rental.

Lately, however, the brewery has refused to receive the rental and "intimidated" the widow by saying that if she did not pay the amount, they would demand, claiming protection under the lease. To settle the matter, Hunter began suit against the brewery.

The last lease made by Mrs. Lovell is declared "off color," but it also is contended that Maier and Zobein were in no position to attack it, inasmuch as they had taken rental from Hunter under the document. Judge Conroy took the case under submission.

Paradisa has a reputation for sending queer persons to the Courthouse. This was sustained yesterday when August Stampli, of that city, was committed by the Insanity Commission. Later, in March, 1902, she married Walter V. Newman at Winslow, Ariz. A year afterward he disappeared. He was located on the U. ## OLD MINE IN LITIGATION.

Suit Brought by Trustees of Golden Cross in San Diego County, to Force Foreclosure.

Another big legal fight was begun yesterday in the United States Circuit Court, over the old Golden Cross mine at Hedge, in San Diego county. The title of the suit in equity is "Golden Cross Mining and Milling Company, J. M. Elliott, trustee, vs. The Free Gold Mining Company and Credits Communication Company."

Only a legal expert would be able to tell just when the first lawsuit began over this property, but J. M. Elliott came into it in 1901, as trustee of the Golden Cross mine, and the Free Gold Mining Company and Credits Communication Company.

In 1907 a sale of the property was negotiated to a syndicate composed of Jack Chandler, Isaac Trumbull and R. M. Shortridge of San Francisco, the consideration named in the agreement being $1,000,000, who organized as the Free Gold Mining Company. When this transfer was made there was a indebtedness of about $300,000, which had been contracted when the mine was the hands of James Bojars, Joseph Sloa, L. W. Blinn, J. M. Johnston, A. Haas and C. Seligman.

The new company immediately brought suit in the courts of San Diego county and asked that the trust deed be declared null and void, repudiating the debts it covered. Pending action, a receiver was appointed in the judgment he given against the Free Mining Company for the deficit.

A recent episode at a western college seems to indicate that the women students, at least, do not suffer under the educational plan. There are student waiters in the college refectory, and when one of these, a young girl, flched from a young woman a platter of pancakes she had designed for her own table, she was promptly promptly brought the platter down on his too adventurous head. The student waiter, whether in or out of college, can plainly be depended upon to protect herself against any member of the inferior sex. Time has changed since the "elegant female" constantly turned to a male champion. [Providence Journal.]

RAISE THE FLAG FOR THE BOYS.

CEREMONY TOMORROW AT THE MCKINLEY HOME.

Women of Stanton Relief Corps Give Banner and Two Veteran Sailors Will Haul It Aloft, While Corner-stone of McKinley Monument is Being Laid in Ohio.

While the corner-stone is being laid tomorrow of the beautiful McKinley National Monument at Canton, Ohio, the members of Stanton Woman's Relief Corps, Los Angeles, through Mrs. Ferdinand K. Wheeler, patriotic in-birthday. These plants are to be cared for by the boys of the home.

Invitations have been sent to all the churches and patriotic orders to be present tomorrow, when there will take place the building of the flag, originated by Mrs. Wheeler, who on this occasion will be mistress of ceremonies. This time she has thought out a new and beautiful idea for the pretty patriotic exercise. As each stripe is laid, a quotation from McKinley on the flag will be given. The blue field will be laid by Mrs. Robinson, the superintendent of the school, representing the divine foundation on which our country rests. The boys of the school will place the stars, representing the States, and when completed a large flag will be presented, a fitting ending to the beautiful tribute to be given. The flag will be raised by two sailors from the Soldiers' Home, and Mr. Leiber, superintendent of the Y.M.C.A., will deliver an address, while an interesting programme is to be presented.
Everyone is invited, and the cars will leave Third and Hill streets at 11:30 o'clock, the exercises beginning at 2 o'clock.

CROP OUTLOOK GOOD.

Rainfall Heavy for this Section Throughout Southern Section of State and Brings Much Benefit.

An unusually heavy precipitation for so early in the season is recorded in the weekly crop bulletin of the Climate and Crop Service of the Weather Bureau, compiled by George E. Franklin, local forecaster. Benefit from the rain came to all parts of Southern California, the heaviest rainfall being in the extreme southern portion of the section, while it was lightest in the northern portion. The precipitation generally was sufficient to start vegetation and to enable farmers to begin plowing and seeding in good season. Fair, warm weather followed the rains of the first of the week just closed; the hills and valleys began to show a coating of green and the first snow grain is beginning to come up. In most places the rainfall was equal to one irrigation, but it is to be of lasting benefit, more must come soon.

Oranges in most all regions are reported as coloring more rapidly since the rain, while fruit and trees are reported as appearing in much better condition than in many years.

The harvesting of walnuts goes on apace, with the crop in excellent condition, but as yet there has been only a light and sporadic movement of oranges. Celery shipments from Orange county are brisk, about ten carloads going forward each day from Westminster.

The rainfall was extraordinarily heavy for this period in San Diego county; in some of the higher portions of that section it exceeded five inches. Indications there portend a wet season.

HURLED UPON CAR.

Driver in Collision Pitched Through Glass and on Platform, Injuries May Kill.

A. Heinemeier, of No. 1527 St. John street, driver for the Crown Hill Dairy Company, was thrown through the glass front of a West Seventh street car in an accident at Sixth and Colorado streets yesterday afternoon, and sustained injuries that may prove fatal.
Heinemeier was driving down a steep hill when his team became frightened and ran directly in front of an approaching car. The wagon was dashed through the front glass and on the platform by the force of the collision. The Police Surgeon attended the injured man at the Receiving Hospital and amputated a finger, which was severely cut by glass. Heinemeier sustained concussion of the brain also, and his injuries are considered serious.

The flag will be presented by the corps and hauled aloft by two old sailors.

The company has also donated seventy-five carnations to adorn the gardens of the home. The flowers to be planted on January 23, which will be the anniversary of the martyred McKinley's

PHILANTHROPIC WOMEN.

Southern California Methodist Missionary Society in Three Days' Annual Session.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Church, opened yesterday morning in the First Church, and will continue in session until tomorrow afternoon.

Both the morning and afternoon sessions yesterday consisted entirely of reports of secretaries of the various departments of work, showing a great advance all along the line over previous years.

Miss Jennie Smith, National Railroad Evangelist, gave an interesting talk in the afternoon on a recent visit she made to the White House to talk with the employees about the Executive Mansion. She referred feelingly to the graciousness with which she had been received by Mrs. Roosevelt.

Last night the Deacons Home on Hewitt street and the Frances DePaw Industrial School kept open house, that the delegates might visit these two institutions, both of which receive support from the society.

A CASE IN POINT.

"Say, can't you give me a cup of coffee?" I have no money to pay for it.

This question was put to O. D. Conroy while he stood in the coffee club yesterday talking to a Times reporter on this very subject. Superintendent Conroy sniffed the breath of the fellow for an instant and then said:

"You'd have a lot more money to pay for it if you didn't spend so much for booze, but you can have the cup of coffee."

Out of the 1600 men and boys fed at the two coffee clubs that day, there were quite a number of just such cases as the one cited. Mr. Conroy takes the broad ground that it is right to let the applicant know that his frailties are observable and then grant the favor he asks. In most instances he considers time reading or playing games and it cannot help but produce a good effect. Mr. Conroy said on the free-amenity question:

"It is the one dream of my life when such a thing can be brought about. The correct plan, to my mind, is to do it in connection with the coffee clubs, for they will pay a large portion of the expenses. We have a little room here where we give entertainments some evenings but it is so small that it will only accommodate a couple of hundred persons and it is always packed to suffocation. We could accomplish great things if we had a big hall and there is nothing the Church Federation of Los Angeles cannot accomplish in this direction if they will but take it up."

We have plans in view that will give us at least one such large hall if we move to the new location. It is out, enabling us to get possession of a theater on Court street that would be ideal for the purpose suggested."

AMUSE THE LONELY?

Problem for the Church to Solve.

MINISTERS INDORSE IT.
"I should think it would be very desirable to have such places of amusement," said Dr. Hugh K. Walker yesterday. "I have always held to the idea that this would be the best way to reach men who will not go to the churches. I think great good could be done if, for instance, the work of the Young Men's Christian Association could be duplicated in different parts of the city, but entirely free from any form of religious exercises. Large halls could be provided where the people could have clean, moral, intelligent social diversion, and at the same time be greatly benefited by jolly, healthful and helpful entertainments that will appeal to their minds."
"It would take a lot of money, but it would undoubtedly be worth while and I only wish it might be brought about," Rev. William Horace Day said. "A general movement for free houses of clean amusement would be a great thing for the city. What I would like to see is a movement to secure large halls in connection with the several coffee clubs, which are already a step in the right direction, and behind which the churches are indirectly standing. At the Bethlehem Institution, the idea suggested is being elaborated as far as possible and other of the same kind would accomplish great good."
"The Church Federation is for this very thing, and I should be glad to see them take it up. It would require a great outlay of money for the building of such halls and for their endowment, in order that they might be maintained on an entirely free basis, and one reason for advocating them in connection with the coffee clubs, is that the latter will pay a good portion of the expenses."
Said Dean Wilkins of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral: "I know of no organized movement along the lines suggested except Bethlehem Institution, and it is a great shame that it is so. It would seem, however, that in some place where the experiment has been tried it has been successful. Individually as churches, we do a great deal to attract these people and win them, but there are those who will not come to the churches and it would be wise to provide means for entertaining them in a proper way, and thus give them some choice over spending their evenings in the saloons."
"There is much to be said on that score," remarked Rev. A. R. Prichard, pastor of Central Presbyterian Church, "and I have been wondering what steps we ought to take in that direction. Central Church is well located for such a movement and I hope to carry it out in some form. Possibly about November we may take up something leading in that direction, in the way of stereopticon lectures, to be entirely free to the public. I have always been opposed to charging anything for admission to a church—it leaves a better taste in the mouth of the people if everything is free."
"There is something big to be done along the line of providing entertainment and amusement for the men who are expected to keep out of the saloons in the evening, and I've been thinking seriously about it for some time. It is possible that public discussions on popular themes might prove attractive to many much good."
"I believe in open churches most sincerely; keep them open and make no fuss about it," declared Bishop Johnson. "I think it would be a good idea to have weekly free concerts or organ recitals, for I often enjoy going in and sitting down in some church where the organ is being played. There are very grave divisions in the matter of providing for the recreation of the many persons who cannot afford to pay for it, of which is compelled to go from one year's end to the other and never hear a song, or witness a picture, or enjoy an inspiring talk, because every penny earned is insufficient to pay for even the meagre family wants."

be made, for politics, and not wholly a desire to better the condition of the department, is a factor in the matter.
